ENFORCEMENT BUREAU'S STATUS REPORT

1. By Order, FCC 11M-24 (released August 24, 2011) ("Order"), the Presiding Judge canceled a Prehearing Conference scheduled for September 7, 2011, and, in lieu thereof, ordered Mr. Baxter to file a Status Report on September 7, 2011, disclosing specific information regarding the status of the pending U.S. District Court collection action against him,¹ and the Enforcement Bureau ("Bureau") to file on September 14, 2011, a status report describing "the extent of its discovery to date . . . any expected further discovery deemed necessary," and "the estimated date that the Bureau shall be ready for hearing." The Enforcement Bureau ("Bureau") hereby submits its report as required by the Order.

2. To date, the Bureau has served on Mr. Baxter a first set of interrogatories. Regardless of the outcome of a related federal collection action involving Mr. Baxter, the Bureau anticipates that it will need the opportunity to serve additional interrogatories, requests for documents, and admissions of facts and genuineness of documents, and to take depositions of various persons.² The Bureau anticipates that it will need six additional months to complete discovery and prepare for the hearing, and estimates that it will be ready for hearing in February 2012, assuming reasonable cooperation by Mr. Baxter.

Respectfully submitted,
P. Michele Ellison
Chief, Enforcement Bureau
